

Redemption Life Tabernacle Church Prep Sponsorship Packet

2018-2019

Dear Patron,

Thank you for considering the sponsorship of the Redemption Life Tabernacle Church Prep, a 501C non-profit organization. The 2018-2019 basketball season has exciting potential on local, state and national level, and has already gotten the attention of many premier colleges and media. Your support will open more opportunities for these athletes, which you should expect to see at collegiate and professional levels. In addition to your support making a difference in the lives of high-quality young men and having a tax-deductible donation, there are also benefits to your business through unique advertising opportunities.

As a sponsor of our organization, you will have the opportunity to be recognized and promoted in several ways. This includes your logo display in a prominent location on multiple websites, promotion on various social media platforms, on team t-shirts, and on color banners at home games and numerous basketball tournaments for the 2018-2019 season. These opportunities will have the potential to reach several thousands of people in communities locally and across the region. And, you will have the sincere gratitude of a group of young men who are working hard for success individual and as a team.

We offer several options for sponsoring our team and are willing to work to find a solution that fits you. If you have any questions after reviewing the attached information, please feel free to contact us via email at rpinder@rltcrep.org

Thank you in advance for your consideration!

Sincerely,

Tim Miller
